

How do I locate my application Id?

This article applies to:

If you need to contact customer support, they will ask for your "application Id" or "app Id" or "app name" in order to help verify your account and to access your application to assist.

You will find your app id by clicking on your name icon at the top right of the page. In this image, the app name is gx624

