This week's bug fixes plus some exciting updates on the horizon

We did some work under the hood this week, fixing up back-end bugs and one that was impacting our QuickBooks integration. We're also cooking up some exciting updates that will be ready to share in the coming weeks. Stay tuned.

Bug Fixes

- QuickBooks Online and Keap were not syncing information despite a message stating the sync was successful. (Known Issue 1904605)
