Invoices update: Copy and share a direct link

You now have an even quicker way to share an invoice. Simply copy the link and send it via email, text, or anywhere you prefer to share links with your clients. Lost invoice emails or missed texts are no longer a reason to delay your payday when you have a direct link, and we think that's worth celebrating. Learn more.

Email Builder update: Changes to unsubscribe links

In our continued efforts to protect our high email deliverability standards, Keap's Advanced Email Builder no longer allows for modification to the Unsubscribe Link Text that appears at the bottom of emails created with the Email Builder.
