September 16, 2021 | Keap ⚲

This article applies to:

Upsells on checkout can include recurring payments

We enhanced the new upsell option in checkout forms for Max customers. Upsells can now include products with recurring payments in addition to products with one-time payments. Learn more.

Bug fixes

- The Italian translation of the confirmation email had incorrect grammar

- Disconnected Gmail accounts were still showing as connected

- Payment types with similar names couldn't be deleted when setting up the campaign Product Purchase goal